RESOURCE BOOK

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Congress of Aboriginal Peoples (CAP) would like to acknowledge the many contributors to the design and development of this Family Violence Prevention and Awareness Toolkit for Aboriginal families living off-Reserve. A special thank you to those individuals who shared their personal experiences of family violence and messages of hope. The CAP would also like to thank Elder Elize Hartley and Elder Gordon Williams for their guidance and assistance with this project.

The CAP would also like to acknowledge and thank the project National Advisory Committee and Partners members for their insight, guidance and expertise. The design and development of this toolkit would not have been possible without your hard work, dedication, and time committed to this project.

National Advisory Committee and Partners:

- * New Brunswick Aboriginal Peoples Council
- * Ontario Coalition of Aboriginal People
- * Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation Band
- * Aboriginal Affairs Coalition of Saskatchewan Inc.
- * NunatuKavut
- * CAP National Youth Council
- * Institute for the Advancement of Aboriginal Women
- * Canadian Centre for Child Protection

HOW TO CLEAR YOUR WEB BROWSER

How to clear your Internet browser

When you use your computer, it can leave behind information that your abuser should not see. Here's how to keep clear your web browser in order to stay safe on your computer:

Internet Explorer: From the Tools menu, select Internet Options. Choose the General tab and, under Temporary Internet Files, click on Delete Files. Under History, click on Clear History. Then, click OK.

Firefox: From the Edit menu, select Preferences. Under Privacy, select History and click on Clear Browsing History Now. Then select Cache & click on Clear Cache Now.

Safari: From the Safari menu, select Empty Cache and click on Empty. Pull down the History menu, select Clear History and click on Clear.

Chrome: From the Chrome top right-hand corner box with 3 bars, select Tools and clear browsing data. In the dialog that appears, select the checkboxes for the types of information that you want to remove (history, cookies, cache). Use the menu at top to select the amount of data that you want to delete. Select Beginning of Time to delete everything and click Clear browsing data.
